

Lawrence Washington's

Mount Vernon?

Aerial photo of Mount
Vernon estate and grounds.

East front of Mount Vernon.

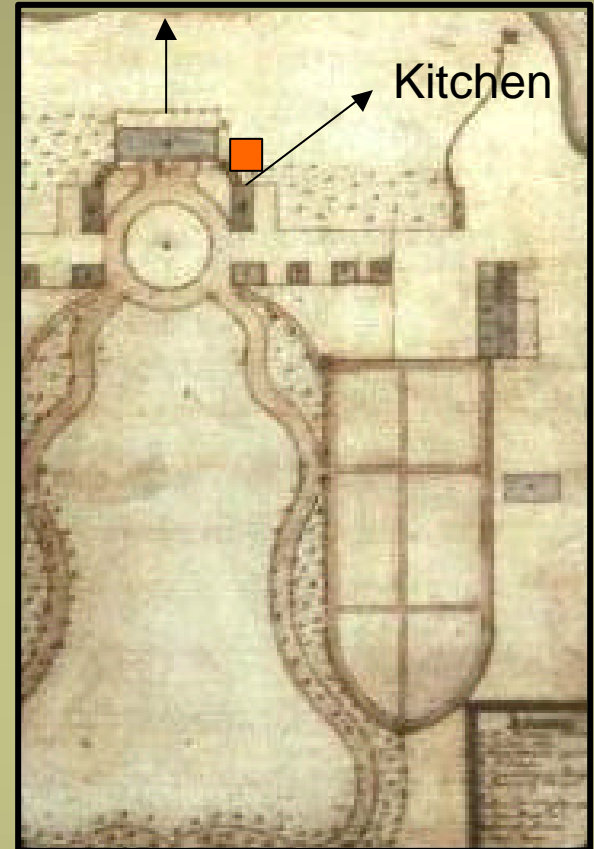

Mansion

Kitchen

Mansion

Kitchen

Orange square indicates the South Grove Midden site on an aerial view of Mount Vernon (left) and on the 1787 Vaughn Plan (right).

Fragment of Rhenish stoneware chamber pot: ca.1710-1765.

Tin-glazed earthenware punch bowl: ca.1600-1775.

Fragment of feather-edged creamware plate: post-1769.

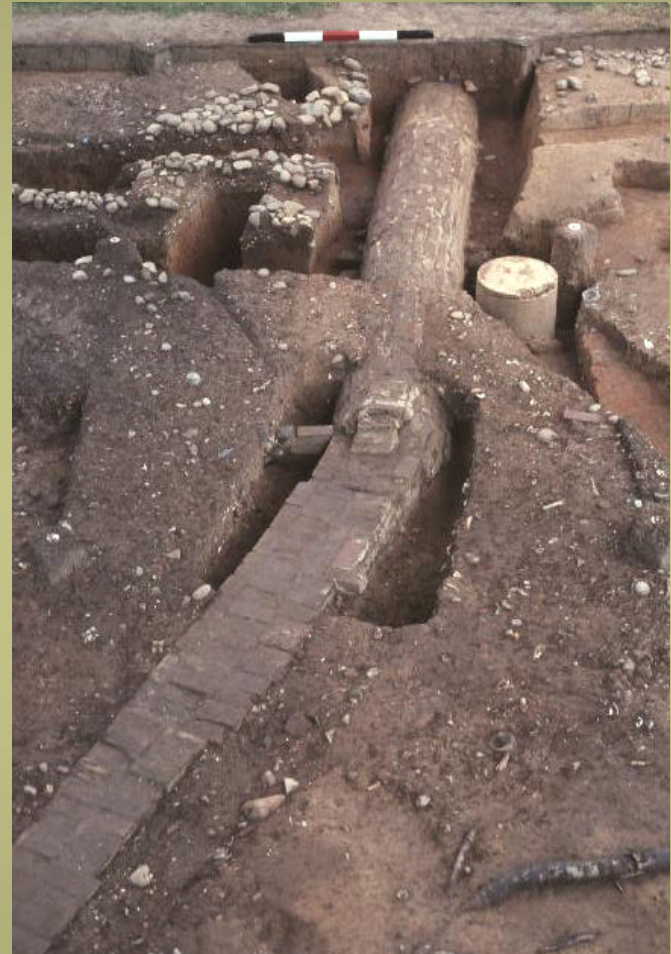

Trunk nameplate: ca. 1775

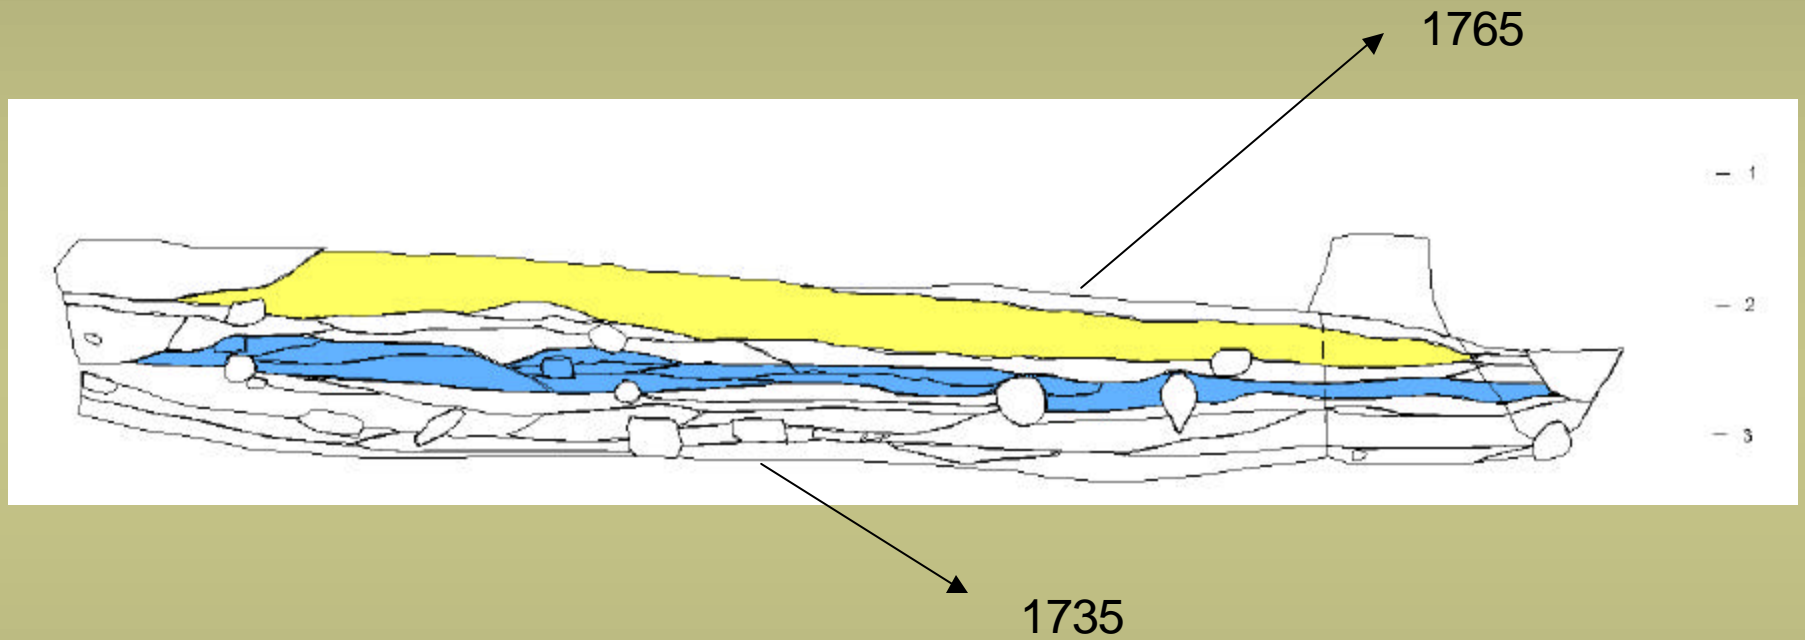

Map and photo showing ca. 1775 brick drain.

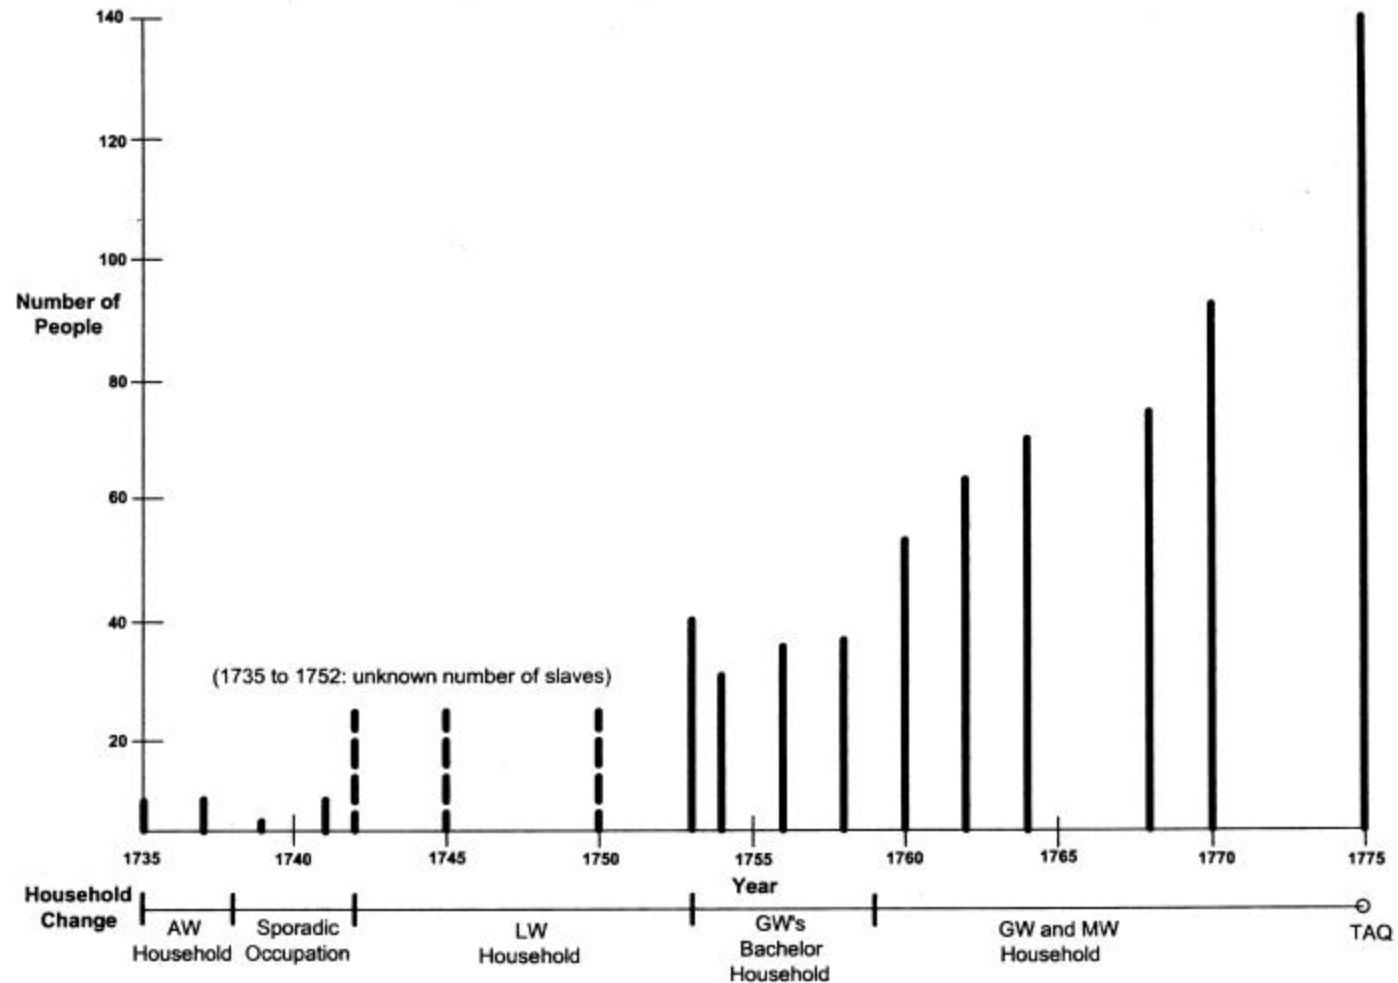

Red outlines brick drain; green outlines midden.

Profile drawing of layers of soil in the midden.

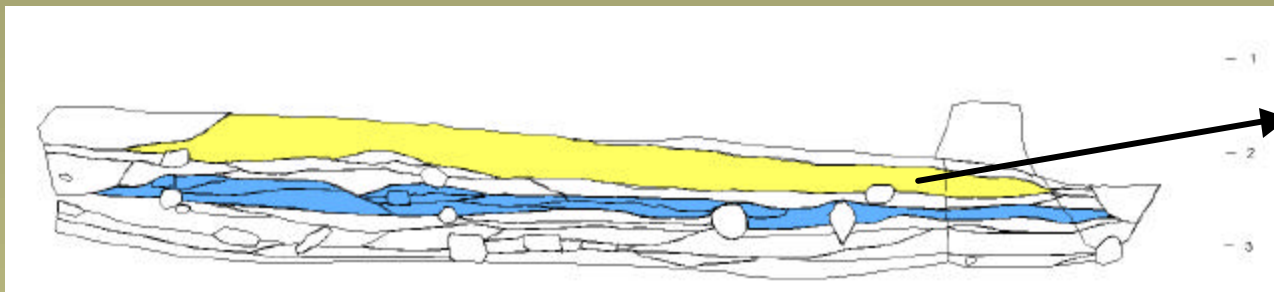

Graph depicting demographics of Washington households from 1735 to 1775.

Seriation graph depicting two peaks in ceramic deposition.

Layer D highlighted in yellow.

Sample of plaster from "plaster" layer.

Chinese export porcelain teabowls and Staffordshire slipware mugs found in layer D.

Layer J highlighted in blue.

Chinese export porcelain plates and Rhenish jugs found in layer D.

Toothbrushes, wig curlers, wine bottle seals, key, furniture hardware, weaving-related tool.

Excavating the South Grove.

Clay figurines.